COURSE: 301- J ADVANCED SPANISH CONVERSATION & COMPREHENSION

COURSE OBJECTIVES

The aim of this course is for advanced students of Spanish to increase their comprehension and fluency. Students will enhance their vocabulary, reinforce grammar aspects already studied, and delve into knowledge and skills related to both cultural and linguistic life. In order to achieve these objectives, each and every student’s participation is fundamental, given that the dynamic of discussion and exchange will form the main core of this class.

Likewise, students will approach Spanish sociocultural reality, not just as another piece of information, but with the goal of appreciating this factor’s importance in the comprehension and production of utterances adequate to each context.

STRUCTURE

This course aims to improve the written and spoken comprehension and fluency of Spanish language learners. Since it is an intensive class, students must carry out tasks requiring both communicative skills and grammatical reflection. Thus, activities will showcase varied content and favor diverse classroom dynamics.

Work will be both individual and collaborative and student-instructor interaction will be ongoing.

Various activities are planned:
- Readings of texts and documents that contextualize the content studied in class.
- Review of different grammatical aspects.
- Inventing dialogues with a partner using the vocabulary and expressions learned.
- Taking on varied roles to represent points of view and characters.
- Presenting a range of situations in which students will comment how they would react
- Guided discussions on general topics in which students must choose a position (for or against) and defend their stance with convincing arguments.
- Oral and listening comprehension activities
- Oral presentations.
- Projections of short films related to cultural topics or grammatical and lexical activities from class.

Students must write two compositions in different styles. These compositions must be typed, double-spaced, in Word with a 12-point Arial font. They should be 200-250 words long. The topics are the following

Composition 1: Letter to a newspaper
Composition 2: Narration
The course will include a midterm exam halfway through the second week, an oral presentation of a current news item or an aspect of Spanish culture and a final exam.

Students must attend the following cultural visits:
- Itálica:
- The Alcazar
- Cathedral:

There will be other mandatory activities specific to the class:
- Walk through Triana and visit to the market
- Sevillian tapas
