

The Center for Cross-Cultural Study

2024 From Córdoba to Patagonia January Term Program Program Calendar

Córdoba and Patagonia, Argentina

January 3, Wednesday	Arrival in Córdoba* – Arrival at homestays
January 4, Thursday	Welcome cocktail at University Campus Morning theoretical and practical classes begin
January 5, Friday	Morning classes
January 6, Saturday	Visit to Córdoba city's General San Martín Biodiversity Reservation
January 7, Sunday	Free day
January 8, Monday	Morning classes on campus - Visit to another Biodiversity Reservation in the city of Córdoba
January 9, Tuesday	Morning classes on campus - Visit to another Biodiversity Reservation in the city of Córdoba
January 10, Wednesday	Morning classes on campus
January 11 and 12, Thursday and Friday	Trip to Los Gigantes: field work
January 13, Saturday	Morning classes on campus
January 14, Sunday	Free day
January 15, Monday	Day trip to El Condorito Ravine Reservation
January 16, Tuesday	Morning classes on campus
January 17, Wednesday	Flight to Trelew, Chubut Province Visit to Museo Paleontológico
January 18, Thursday to January 27, Friday	Visit to Aquavida Interpretation Center Theoretical and hands-on classes with specialists Visits to Magaña Beach - Excursions: Tonina Overa (dolphins) Visit to Península de Valdes - Sea lions watching Visit to Punta Pirámides Estancia Transfer to Puerto Madryn - Sea lions' and penguins' communities in Punta Tombo and Laguna Chiquichano
January 27, Saturday	Flight to Ezeiza Airport, end of program and housing through SSA

NOTES:

* Nearly all flights from the U.S. to Argentina are overnight. Students flying from the U.S. should plan to depart the day before the program start date.

 Trip dates/destinations and holidays/vacation dates are subject to change. Trips posted on this calendar are mandatory for all students.